

Jennifer D. Borson, M.D.

Licensure and Board Certification

Member of the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists
Licensed to Practice Medicine, State of Michigan

Office Hours

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday

Care Philosophy

I am committed to forming a special connection with each of my patients. My guiding principle is to maintain an inviting atmosphere where my patients can feel comfortable. I am also dedicated to providing thorough and up-to-date care. I enjoy educating my patients and strive to integrate their goals into a patient-centered healthcare plan.

Special Interests

Minimally invasive surgery (including robotic assisted procedures), infertility, and adolescent medicine.

Education and Post Doctoral Training

Residency, Providence Hospital

Wayne State University School of Medicine, M.D.

University of Michigan, B.S.

Awards and Honors

Providence-Providence Park Hospitals, Residency Program

Bernard Mandelbaum Award for demonstrated commitment to sustained personal involvement in Obstetrics and Gynecology education

Wayne State University, Medical Degree

David S. Diamond Memorial Award for being a distinguished medical student above all others in Obstetrics and Gynecology

Distinguished Service Award for academic accomplishment and active participant in Extracurricular programs

University of Michigan, Bachelor of Science

Graduated with Distinction

Committees

Family Medicine Liaison Committee

Baby Friendly Committee